"There is just no way to accurately describe Beard and Bean in single terms because they seem to be everywhere and be everything."

-THE GYPSY-

Since November 30 of 2008 Little Beard and Gel E. Bean, have been a two man act performing around the United States at Festivals, Faires, Rallies, Trade Shows, Conventions, Concerts, On-Stage, On-Screen, On-Line, and On Demand.

"Last year, at TopCon Geek Expo 2015, with 2,326 people attending our Con it became an almost overwhelming task of crowd control and keeping people informed of where and at what time all of our numerous events were taking place; Beard and Bean stepped up to the plate to assist" explains The GYPSY, Creator and Executive Director of TopCon Geek Expo.

With his signature "Hey You Guys!" yelled from the balcony above the Atrium in the Ramada Topeka Downtown, which is where TopCon 2015 took place and where TopCon 2016 will also take place, Little Beard and Gel E. Bean were able to rally the fans and direct them to the multitude of events that took place that weekend. When TopCon Geek Expo 2016 takes place on September 16, 17 & 18 this year not only will Little Beards "Goonie Yell" be heard far and wide but Gel E. Beans often manic energy will come into play as these Steampunk Stars keep the show moving.

"We're excited to be back and help support the Topeka Geek community. Looking forward to lots of laughs and lots of fun." Gel E. Bean exclaims. Little Beard and Gel E. Bean both work around the country as part of The ScallyWags Pirate Comedy show and have a lot of fun doing it. "We've taken parts of that and parts of other things we love to create a flexible act that can be a great fit in a lot of shows. We perform game shows, challenge shows, Sketch Comedy and science demonstrations" the Magnificent Men of Mischief & Mayhem explain.

"There is just no way to accurately describe Beard and Bean in single terms because they seem to be everywhere and be everything." The GYPSY chuckles. "They are perfect entertainers for our event! Whether on the stage doing the Japanese Game Show they have planned for TopCon, moderating a TopCon panel, hosting a TopCon event or just keeping TopCon Fans entertained they've done it all and will always do it again"
