The GYPSY, Creator and Executive Director of TopCon Geek Expo was excited when he discovered that Nicole would be available to attend TOPCON GEEK EXPO 2015. "I am a huge fan of FaceOff and Nicole and I know that she has quite a following in this area. We have a very large population of Cosplayers and Special Effects Fans, Artists and Practitioners in this region and with Nicole's appearance they will be able to learn from and meet one of the Worlds Best!"

And learning is what it is all about for this Master Make-Up Artist who is the Owner of Vicious Vanity FX in Roseville, California. Nicole garners her inspirations from nature and its smallest details like the spines on the back of a leaf or similar aspects that people may take for granted. The ocean and all its life intrigues her immensely. This is seen through an aesthetic that is uniquely her own. More than anything she enjoys creating new engaging creatures and making her artistic vision come to life. She loves finding the beauty in things dark and creepy and making them both beautiful and a bit scary at the same time.
