HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE RED DALEK RETURNS TO TOPCON

For those Fans of DOCTOR WHO no explanation is needed YET for soon to be Fans of the Last Time and Space Traveling Time Lord from the planet Gallifrey a picture is worth a thousand Timey Wimey Wibbly Woobly words.

Eric Collins of Prairie Village, Kansas who somehow captured the arch nemesis of DOCTOR WHO and now is keeping The Doctors TIME AND RELATIVE DIMENSION IN SPACE Ship AKA; The T.A.R.D.I.S. safe until The Doctor reclaims it has graciously offered to bring both to TOPCON GEEK EXPO 2016 on September 16, 17 & 18, 2016 at the Downtown Topeka Ramada.

TOPCON Executive Director The GYPSY announced during TopCon Geek Expo 2015 that The Red Dalek had earned the distinction of TOPCON HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE. "The Red Dalek became our 2nd Inductee, the first in 2014 was The Enigma." The GYPSY explains how important this honor is, "To be inducted into the TopCon Hall Of Fame is a singular honor and inductees must meet the following criteria: Be Entertaining: Nobody likes a boring Batman. Think More Of Others Than Themselves: Are you doing what you do for fame or to make others smile? Be A Fan Favorite: Do kids flock to you or run away screaming as if from Godzilla? Be Courteous And Giving: Are you Scrooge or are you Mother Teresa? Understand That Being The Best Means Being Willing To Go That Extra Step: After all it is about what you do. The Red Dalek meets all of these criteria and more."

Indeed since winning Best in Show at the first TopCon in 2014 The Red Dalek has become a fan favorite at Cons all over the midwest. The RED DALEK and TARDIS will be appearing in the Atrium at TopCon Geek Expo 2016 for your photo ops. Eric wants to assure TOPCON Fans that, "though the RED DALEK may shout "EXTERMINATE" they will not have to "OBEY" because it's disintegrating ray has been disabled." he says with a wink.
